

DEPARTMENT OF ZOOLOGY

KATWA COLLEGE

Program Outcome (PO) Of CBCS Syllabus

Students gain a comprehensive knowledge of the fundamental principles of Zoology including classification, physiology, anatomy, developmental biology, genetics, evolution, ecology and animal behaviour which will help open a wide array of career opportunities.

They will also understand the scientific methodology & gain practical experience in identifying and studying animals, their anatomy, physiology through laboratory experiments aiding in research related work. Students also develop the ability to apply theoretical concepts to solve real world problems like wild life conservation & management, animal ethical issues etc. Overall contributing in the field of biotechnology, food processing, agricultural science, wildlife, health & veterinary science.